

IMPORTANT ARMY MOVEMENTS.

Halleck to be General-in-Chief.

HIS ADDRESS TO HIS ARMY.

As foretold by our Corinth correspondence, on Friday morning, the mission of Gen. Sprague of Rhode Island to Gen. Halleck, was for the purpose of tendering him, in behalf of the President, the command of the armies of the United States. Although there is no positive evidence that such is the fact, the statements to that effect are too numerous, coupled with his address to his army, to leave any room for doubt of the fact.

ADDRESS OF GEN. HALLECK TO HIS SOLDIERS ON TAKING LEAVE OF THE ARMY OF THE SOUTH-WEST.

CORINTH, Wednesday, July 16, 1862.

Gen. Halleck has just issued a special field order, saying that, in giving up the immediate command of the troops constituting the Army of the South-West, he desires to express his high appreciation of the endurance, behavior, and soldierly conduct which they have exhibited, and to express to the commanders of army corps and their subordinates his warmest thanks for their cordial cooperation. He says the soldiers have nobly done their duty, and accomplished much toward crushing this wicked Rebellion, and that, if they continue to exhibit the same vigilance, courage, and perseverance, it is believed they will soon bring the war to a close.

We collate the various rumors set afloat in relation to the army changes in contemplation by the Government.

THE REMOVED MILITARY CHANGES.

The city has been agitated for some days with rumors of important changes about to take place with reference to the management of military affairs. It is undoubtedly true that Gen. Halleck was some time ago invited to visit Washington, to confer with the President and the War Department upon the various military operations in progress in the several sections.

This invitation was given some time before the recent movement in front of Richmond, and was intended to be accepted whenever the circumstances of Gen. Halleck's situation would permit. The position of affairs in the South-West will now allow his absence. Gen. Halleck is now on the road to this city, and will reach here in a couple of days.

It is understood that on his arrival he will be assigned to the position of General Commanding the Army of the United States, both in the South-West and Virginia. He will, consequently, remain in Washington, and be in constant intercourse with the President and the War Department.

Gen. McClellan will continue in command of the Army of the Potomac, and Gen. Pope of the Army of the Shenandoah, the confidence of the President being unabated in both of these gallant officers. There is not the slightest foundation for a rumor of a change in the head of the War Department.

(Washington, July 16, 1862.)

REPORTED RESIGNATION OF GEN. MCCLELLAN.

The following is a special to The Philadelphia Times:

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Rumors have been prevalent here for the last three days, that Gen. McClellan has resigned his command. I incline to the belief that there is good foundation for the report, and yet it is not possible to ascertain the truth of the matter. There are several rumors as to his successor. Halleck and Pope are both talked of.

The Frankfort (Ky.) Commonwealth of the 14th says:

"We believe the President will appoint Halleck, and because a dispatch said to have gone through this (Saturday) morning states he had done so."

WASHINGTON, July 16, 1862.

There is a very positive rumor on the streets to-day that Gen. Halleck arrived here last evening, or that he will arrive here to-night. It is reported in so many high quarters that I am inclined to believe it true. It is also said that Gen. Halleck comes here to assume command of all the troops in Virginia, not as an active commander in the field, but as the commanding general of the President.

The President admits that it is really time that one mind should direct all the loyal forces in Virginia, and that the "army of the Potomac" and the "army of Virginia" should act in concert. To enable this to be done it is asserted that Gen. Halleck will be put in command of the army in the field, and that he will be in Washington. This will relieve the President and Mr. Stanton from attacks in the future, on the ground that they have improperly interfered with this or that General. This is a rumor. But many facts give the rumor an aspect of truth, and the country need not be surprised to learn that it is absolutely true.

(Eve. Post.)

FROM NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Thursday, July 17, 1862.

Returned prisoners report that the Union soldiers paroled by the Rebels at McMinnville have retired to Knoxville.

The Rebels have gone to Chattanooga.

WAR MEETING AT BANGOR, ME.

BANGOR, Me., Thursday, July 17, 1862.

A grand patriotic meeting was held here this evening in aid of enlistments for the late requisition of troops by the General Government. The enrolled militia of this city and neighboring towns, numbering one thousand, marched in procession with six bands of music.

The Hall was crowded at an early hour. The immense mass of people caused the breaking down of a portion of the approach to the Hall, and some hundreds of people were precipitated some fifteen feet below, upon the sidewalk, but fortunately there was no loss of life.

The meeting then adjourned to the area in front of the Bangor House, where Vice-President Hamilton, Gen. Howard, the Hon. S. H. Blake, W. H. Mc. Griffin, and others, delivered addresses.

Resolutions were adopted pledging the people of the Penobscot Valley to sustain the Government with their full quota of troops, and calling upon the Administration to prosecute the war with vigor and with all the means and all the men of whatever color they can command.

RECRUITING IN ELMIRA.

ELMIRA, Friday, July 18, 1862.

Recruiting in this county is progressing at a rapid rate, and the prospect now is that little Chenango will have its quota ready within a fortnight. Nearly two-thirds of the number are already in camp. Rousing meetings have been held in Elmira, Horseheads, Milford, and other towns, and about three thousand dollars have been obtained by private contributions to assist in raising men, while numbers of prominent citizens are advancing the Government bounty to volunteers.

SUICIDE OF AN AID-DE-CAMP TO GEN. BOYLE.

LEWISTON, Thursday, July 17, 1862.

Edward Hughes of Lewiston, Ky., Aid to Gen. Boyle, and who in that capacity greatly distinguished himself at the battle of Shiloh, shot himself fatally this evening. The cause of the act is unknown.

THE LOUISVILLE COMMON COUNCIL AND THE BOARD OF SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Thursday, July 17, 1862.

A meeting of the Common Council was held this evening. Both Boards unanimously passed an ordinance compelling the Board of School Trustees to require all professors and teachers of the Public Schools, before entering on their duties, to appear before the Mayor and take oath to support the Constitution of the United States and Kentucky, and to be true and loyal citizens thereof.

New-York Tribune.

VOL. XXII. NO. 6,643.

NEW-YORK, SATURDAY, JULY 19, 1862.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

FROM GEN. POPE'S ARMY.

The Occupation of Gordonsville—Destruction of the Railroad Connection with Richmond—Supply Transportation to the Richmond Army Cut Off—Address to his Army by Gen. Pope—Foraging on the Enemy and Paying for the Same.

WASHINGTON, Friday, July 18, 1862.

We feel at liberty to state that yesterday, a portion of the army of Gen. Pope entered the important town of Gordonsville, Va., unopposed, and destroyed all the railroad paraphernalia at that point, the junction of the Orange and Alexandria and Virginia Central Railroads. Three-fourths of the troops, munitions, and supplies of every description for the Rebel Army at Richmond, of necessity, passed through Gordonsville by rail. The blow is therefore a most important one, more especially as it is the first of a series, which, we trust, will do more to cripple the efficiency of the (Rebel) Richmond army than any that has yet occurred.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF VIRGINIA, 3.

WASHINGTON, July 18, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 5. Hereafter, as far as practicable, the troops of this command will subsist upon the country in which their operations are carried on. In all cases supplies for this purpose will be taken by the officers to whose department they properly belong, under the orders of the commanding officer of the troops to whom they are assigned. Foragers will be given to the owners, standing on their face that they will be payable at the conclusion of the war, upon sufficient testimony being furnished that such owners have been loyal citizens of the United States since the date of the vouchers. Whenever it is known that supplies can be furnished in any district of the country where the troops are to operate, the use of trains will be discontinued with as much possible.

By command of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 6. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 7. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 8. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 9. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 10. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 11. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 12. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 13. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 14. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 15. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 16. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 17. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 18. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 19. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 20. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 21. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 22. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 23. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 24. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 25. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 26. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 27. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 28. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 29. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 30. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 31. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 32. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 33. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.

By order of Major General POPE.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 34. Hereafter, in any operations of the cavalry force in this command, no supply or baggage trains of any description will be used unless so stated specially in the order for the movement. Two days' cooked rations will be carried on the persons of the men, and all villages or neighborhoods through which they pass will be laid under contribution in the manner specified by General Order No. 5, current, per force, from these headquarters, for the assistance of men and horses; movements of cavalry must always be made with celerity, and no delay in such movements will be excused hereafter on any pretext. Whenever the order for the movement of any portion of this army emanates from these headquarters, the time of marching, and that to be commenced in the execution of the duty will be expressly designated, and no departure therefrom will be permitted to pass unnoticed, without the gravest and most conclusive reasons. Commanding officers will be held responsible for strict and prompt compliance with every provision of this order.